Time to Dance

Our Years 3 and 4 Dance Club run by Ami Piper, performed in the Time To Dance Festival at the White Rock Theatre yesterday evening. This year's show was focused on sound and Little Ridge's performance, titled 'In The Deep', explored the different sounds our bodies can make when performing. Mr Johnstone said, 'The girls performance was fantastic and they really enjoyed the evening, performing to a packed crowd at the theatre. They should be extremely proud of themselves.' Many thanks to Ami for putting the dance together. Take a look!

Out of this world!

As part of this term's theme 'Out of this World', our Reception year classes, Canterbury and Surrey, visited the Herstmonceux Science Centre. It looks like they had a very exciting day, take a look!

A reminder to always check the diary dates at the end of these weekly newsletters . There is always a link to letters/information sent home regarding class or year-group activities taking place, just in case you missed any information emailed home. It's a busy first week back with Y3 Brunel swimming sessions starting, Y3 visiting the Hastings Museum and Art Gallery and the week after, parent/teacher meetings. Remember to update the office if your email address changes!

Learning about Fire Safety

Firefighter Michael Warner visited our Year 2 classes this week to talk to the children about fire safety. They discussed beach safety, road safety, how to be safe around hot drinks, smoke alarms, how to call for help/what to do if there is a fire and what to check for at home to make sure your house is safe.
